The Only One

Ra

You think I notice that you're standing there right next to me
Am I supposed to bow my head and thank you gratefully
You break my heart and turn around to get what still remains
I sold my soul and bought my fear, my inner painWithout a clue I trust I follow you with my eyes blind
And what I cannot see I need, I cannot leave behind
With all those eyes on me their hunger is insanity
I can see you standing there
Do you wanna be free, do you wanna be meI don't wanna be the only one
To see my name wrote up on the sun
I don't wanna be the only one
To watch it fall into the seaI don't wanna have to play the game
To sell my soul, betray my name
I don't wanna be the only one
To watch it fall into the seaSo you just sit there stuck afraid to risk reality
Those words are mine and you can find them deep inside of me
You walk away some how dismayed at what you may have done
The lies, the dreams, the broken promises, the only oneI can't remember whose idea it was to make this real
Divided equally my feelings I still cannot feel
And there you are you're all alone inside your fantasy
I can see you standing there
Do you wanna be free, do you wanna be meI don't wanna be the only one
To see my name wrote up on the sun
I don't wanna be the only one
To watch it fall into the seaI don't wanna have to play the game
To sell my soul, betray my name
I don't wanna be the only one
To watch it fall into the seaAnd when the light is gone and it's just you and me
Will you allow us to be who we're supposed to be, yeah
Or will time erode our thoughts, our will, insanityI don't wanna be the only one
To see my name wrote up on the sun
I don't wanna be the only one
To watch it fall into the seaI don't wanna have to play the game
To sell my soul, betray my name
I don't wanna be the only one
To watch it fall into the seaI don't wanna be the only one
I don't wanna be the only one
I don't wanna be the only one
I don't wanna be the only oneI don't wanna be the only one
I don't wanna be the only one

To watch it fall into the sea
