I'm Going to Hell

The Long Blondes

I don't watch soap operas, maybe I should
I need to know if being the bad guy is any good
Would you forgive me now?So many things I used to think about,
I never dare act out
I didn't want to risk the chance of someone finding outNow I'm going to hell, so I may as well, make it worth my while
Now I'm going to hell, so I may as well, make it worth my whileThe first time that it happened, well you knew that it was wrong
The only thing I'll never regret is why it took so longNow I'm going to hell, so I may as well, make it worth my while
Now I'm going to hell, so I may as well, make it worth my while
Would you forgive me now?I don't watch soap operas, maybe I should
I don't watch what I say, I'm through with being good
So many things I used to think about, I never dare act out
Now it's not worth asking you if you'd forgive me now
I don't believe in heaven, I don't believe in hell
But maybe that's the problem, or maybe it's just as well(Oo-ooooh)I'm going to hell, so I may as well make it worth my while
I'm going to hell, so I may as well enjoy myself and go down with a smile
Would you forgive me now?
Would you forgive me now?
Would you forgive me now?
