

Voices In the Fan

Devin Townsend

[Words and music by Devin Townsend]Who's the weakest now?

Caught up in the wire

I'm already gone

Who's the weakest now?It's the grey days that

I'll remember the most

It's the grey times in the water

Before morningI won't be alone

Think of me at night

Send my love to home

I'll be alrightIt's the grey days that

I'll remember the most

It's the grey times in the water

Before morningAnd it's only tonight that

I'll be able to leave

And it's only the weak

That cry for me in morningBecause tonight there will be no sleep

Tonight it comes for me

Please, help them understand

I've become the voices in the fanGoodbye
