

One Last Song

Bryan Hurst

Take my hand, touch my face
Let me feel your embrace
Let me see in your eyes
That you won?t say goodbye
Just tell me how you feel
I don?t know what you?re thinking anymore
And if you need me, you?d kiss me
Then tell me how you feel
And if you want me, you?d show me
That your love is for real
And if you love me
You?d hold me in your arms where I belong
So while I?m feeling strong
I sing you one last song
Let me ask time has passed
Do you feel this could last
If you don?t, why then stay
Take your wings, fly away
I love you way too much
To wanna be the one who brings you down
And if you need me, you?d kiss me
Then tell me how you feel
And if you want me, you?d show me

That your love is for real
And if you love me
You?d hold me in your arms where I belong
So while I?m feeling strong
I sing you one last song
One last song I sing for you
Like I always did
This time it?s for real
I never come to you like this
Expecting you to turn my kiss
Oh no, no, no, no
And if you need me, you?d kiss me
Then tell me how you feel
And if you want me, you?d show me
That your love is for real

And if you love me
You'd hold me in your arms where I belong
So while I'm feeling strong
I sing you one last song
Oh yeah
I sing you one last song
I sing you one last song
