Sorry

Meg Myers

My Heart is Wasted, cut up like a Drug
And your tears they taste like Vinegar and Blood
And these conversations chock us til we're numb
No matter what we're saying it never seems enoughSo Take me to the Start and Take me to that Kiss
Because I got to know, baby, what I'll Forget
Sorry that I lost our love, without a reason why
I'm Sorry that I lost our love, it really hurts sometimes
And I'm Sorry, Sorry!
What do you want, what do you want me to say
Sorry that I lost our love
Until the end of Time ~And My Voice is Twisted, Guilty goes the tongue
And You're eyes are faded, they used to turn me on
And our skin is Dangerous Feelings when we touch
No matter what we're feeling, it never feels enough
So Take me to the Start
and Take me to that Kiss
Because I got to know, baby, what I'll Forget
Sorry that I lost our love, without a reason why
I'm Sorry that I lost our love, it really hurts sometimes
And I'm Sorry, Sorry!
What do you want, what do you want me to say
Sorry I lost our love
Until the end of Time ~I'm Sorry that I lost our love, without a reason why
I'm Sorry that I lost our love, it really hurts sometimes
And I'm Sorry, Sorry!
What do you want, what do you want from me
So Sorry, Sorry, what do you want, what do you want me to say
Sorry that I lost our love, without a reason why
Sorry that I lost our love, it really hurts sometimes
And I'm Sorry, Sorry!
What do you want, what do you want me to say
Sorry I lost our love
Until the end of Time ~
