Here 'n' Now

Total Touch

Burning with blind ambition I wanted to set the world alight Nothing else mattered much to meDriven by dedication I flet so confedent inside a passion had got a hold on meTook me a while to realize that every goal must have its price I needed more to make my life complete The journey has been so long but now I'm coming back home back home to where my heart belongs I know that....Chorus Love is right here 'n' now just leave your searchin far behind and look inside your heart and you will find that love is right here 'n' now things don't have to stay the same love has always been right here 'n' nowWe always fear tomorrow regretting mistakes of yesterday forgetting joys of here 'n' nowWe've gotta seize the moment and then we will find our destiny and all the answers will be foundWe're gonna have to slow things down and get in touch with feeling before you know it, life's passed you byHold onto "right here 'n' now" Hold onto what you feel
And you will know that love is real Oh! Oh! Oh!Repeat ChorusAnd don't be afraid there's a strength inside to guide you just swallow all your pride your life is gonna change forever And there'll be no more looking back when love is growing stronger you know you have arrived - you will find that...Repeat Chorus
