

World of Lies

At the Gates

Degeneration tears your blackened eyes
The final descent for the last in life
No joy in our tired lives, the torment builds inside
The sun sets forever on a world of liesWorld of lies
World of lies
Non-divine
Release meDemonic vultures feed on your mind
Disarmed of all your pride you die
No life in our alien eyes, the blind lead the blind
The sun sets forever on the non-divineWorld of lies
World of lies
Non-divine
Release meFinal psychotic eclipse
Painted in the colors of war
Final psychotic eclipse
A world drenched in bloodDegeneration tears your blackened eyes
The final descent for the last in life
No joy in our tired lives, the torment builds inside
The sun sets forever on a world of liesWorld of lies
World of lies
Non-divine
Release meAnd it's his illusions about what Constitutes the real world which are inhibiting him
His reality, his reason, his society
These are what must be destroyed
Luke Rinehart, 'The Dice Man'Final psychotic eclipse
Painted in the colors of war
Final psychotic eclipse
A world drenched in blood
