

Jealous

Gene Loves Jezebel

I really notice
That you don't sleep at night
Say why do you worry
Why you hurting inside? Who's hurt you baby?
I like you a lot
You are so beautiful
And that is a fact, yeah, yeah, jealous I watch the sun
It cuts through the cloudy skies
It heals these wounds
And makes me glad to be alive So don't you worry
No don't you worry
I'll make you happy
Happy, yeah, yeah Something's wrong
Something's wrong with you
Jealous, yeah
Something's really wrong
Something's wrong with you Jealous, jealous
Jealous, jealous
Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah I spot two lovers
On the Old Brompton Road
I feel so jealous
God I need someone to hold Who's hurt you baby?
I like you a lot
I look at you and I know
That something's up Something's wrong
Something's wrong with you
Jealous
Something's really wrong
Something's wrong with you Jealous, jealous
Jealous, jealous
How do you like the cat?
Kitty, kitty, kitty Jealous, jealous
Jealous, jealous
Jealous, jealous
