Specks

Matt Pond PA

Up above I see specks of silver in the evening sky
Specks of gold in the river running from the deep moonlight
See us shake in the wild distortion of the water's waves
Still I know you're in the darkness shining from a mile away

When the sun starts coming through
Or when the cardinal chides the moon
I believe in energies, that no one has to see for us to prove
I believe in you and me and everything we'll ever see and do

Hear your voice come across the pillows, whisper sweet and low
In the dark we're disappearing, in the dark we'll go
Up above I see specks of silver in the evening sky
Specks of gold in the river running, from the deep moonlight

When the sun starts coming through
Or when the cardinal chides the moon
I believe in energies, that no one has to see for us to prove
I believe in you and me and everything we'll ever see and do

The rain pours down in a million rivers
All through the sand with the silver slivers
And it keeps on coming
How it gives my heart blood
How it gives my heart blood

When the sun starts coming through
Or when the cardinal chides the moon
I believe in energies, that no one has to see for us to prove
I believe in you and me and everything we'll ever see and do
I believe in you and me ?
