

Sometimes

Sweet Baboo

Sometimes I'll say goodbye and leave you on your own awhile But just be sure that I'll dream of your homecoming smile And sometimes when I'm away, I won't call you for days upon days
When I finally do, you'll have something to do, but getting hung up on you, it's alright Baby I might get it wrong, and sometimes that's when I'm far from home A thousand miles but I'm never tired of singing these silly songs Baby let's stay up all night until we're both crazy and sleep deprived
To see two of you is like a dream come true, and if there's anymore, then, oh, I am yours
