

But Julian, I'm A Little Bit Older Than You

Courtney Love

busty co-eds live! live! live they'll crash that car man if you drive i am 1-800, 1-800, 1-800-WIRED

O-B, G-Y, G-Y-N
triple X X X
it's time that you and me had lots and lots of meaning less sex erotic city VIP
the porno-riffic girl is me i came i went i caved oh no i faked it he's still tied to the bed adorable, affordable guaranteed discretion
in the story of my life you'll barely get a mention i see paris i see france i can see your underpants yeah, i see paris i see france yeah, i hear london calling now you come and boy rip 'em off oh baby, i can know where you live i'm overrated, desecrated still somehow illuminated i know i've got a screw loose please meet me in the bedroom

i know your dangerous
what a punk
you would never sell out just like i did playboy that was art
it didn't count!

i love the way your mouth fits mine 1-800-HE'S-SO-FINE
i'm infrared

i'm in your head
we wont be leaving soon

i see paris
i see france
oh i can see your underpants oh we see paris
i hear london calling

now you come here baby rip 'em off oh god i know where you live and i can smell her on you everywhere oh baby i can not forget and forgive

AND IM COMING FOR YOU

oi oi oi
gabba gabba, gabba gabba hey
hey gabba gabba baby
im a little bit older than you
than you, than you

you know how when your phone went dead?
well that was me on the other end
you know how when your phone went dead?
that was me on the other end and when i touched your limousine i really felt the vibe

it said "i love you baby girl, you know, coz i can read your mind"

shut up! shut up! shut up! yeah im comin' comin' comin' for you
hey gabba gabba baby
