

Brothers and Sisters

Ziggy Marley & The Melody Makers

I am my mama's son
You are your father's child
Sometimes we act as if we hate each other
A different faith, different state of mind
That don't mean we all can't be satisfied We are all brothers and sisters (repeat) Some are black and brown
Others white and light
That's the difference I can remember
A different face, a different kind of smile
That's what we see
But this we must realize We are all brothers and sisters (repeat) Earth is my mother, there is no other
So for you, so for all of I
Don't look me with a scorn
In time mankind was born
So for you, so for all of I
Love must live, hate must die
Don't draw no line, don't you be so blind We are all brothers and sisters (repeat) I am no stranger in your town
Rasta seed is all around
So when you are looking at me
Don't think I am your enemy
I am your father's son
You are your mama's child
Sometimes we act as if we hate each other
A different faith, a different state of mind
That don't mean we all can't be satisfied Brothers and sisters we are all
Brothers and sisters all and all (repeat)
