

Not The End Of Me

Group 1 Crew

Every night I find it hard to sleep.
My tears keep running.
I am suffocating while they drowning me.
I didn't see this coming.
I tried to catch my breath.
My heart's a shattered mess.
I am tired of feeling like I've got nothing left.
The end of us is not the end of me.
Every second gets easier to breathe.
Push the fear away, face another day.
Every moment I'm starting to believe,
I'm not broken, I'll keep hoping.
There's a part of me waiting to love again.
The end of us is not the end of me.
Is not the end of me.
It took everything for me to see, that my life's not ending.
You tried to break me but I am not that weak, no.
I am so sick of pretending.
I tried to catch my breath.
My heart's a shattered mess.
I am tired of feeling like I've got nothing left.
The end of us is not the end of me.
Every second gets easier to breathe.

Push the fear away, face another day.
Every moment I'm starting to believe,
I'm not broken, I'll keep hoping.
There's a part of me waiting to love again.
The end of us is not the end of me.
Is not the end of me.
I chose to love, more like love chose me.
Or so I thought cause you had to leave.
Now I'm sitting here feeling so defeated.
It's like you punched my heart, call that a heart beating.
And I made excuses but the truth is that my mind was feeling heavy.
And it really hurts me to admit this, but girl we just weren't ready.
Confetti, hearts torn apart nothin to believe in.
I guess our love was Autumn, it lasted for a season.
The end of us is not the end of me.

Every second gets easier to breathe.
Push the fear away, face another day.
Every moment I'm starting to believe,
I'm not broken, I'll keep hoping.
There's a part of me waiting to love again.
The end of us is not the end of me.
It's not the end of me.
It's not the end of me.
