For You, For Love

Average White Band

Love, has finally come my way
You fill my everyday with love, I think I'll stay around
Your sweet love, has brought new life to me
A pair of eyes to see, so I don't have to dream aboutLoving you is changing everything
I've got this song to sing,
For You, For LoveOh girl, thank you for the time, we're spending
For the love, for the love that you give
Oh girl, thank you for my life
I thank you every time I think of you and I
Now I live for loveWhen loneliness is gone, and happiness is found
With love I think I'll stay around
Your sweet love, has taught me something new
Has brought me home to you
So I don't have to dream aboutLoving you, is changing everything
I've got this song to sing,
For You, For LoveOh girl, thank your smile, for the time we're spending
For the love, for the love that you give
Oh girl, thank you for my life
I thank you everytime I think of you and I
Live for, live for, live for loveLoving you is changing everything
I've got this song to sing For You, For LoveOh girl, thank you for the life
I thank you every time I think of you and I
And now live for loveOh girl, thank your smile, thank you for the time, we're spending
For the love, for the love that you give
Oh girl, thank you for my life
I thank you every time I think of you and I
Now I live for love
