

New V.I.P.

Ian Guerin

I've had it with you
& the games you play
This' my time to change
Packed my things for good
Itâ€™s me or itâ€™s him
I can't live like this
With a poker face
When I'm 'bout to break

Still can't believe it was all in vain
Still can't believe the lies that you said
They're still stuck here up in my head
It may sound crazy but it is what it is
I can't believe I'm saying all this
Should've known it'd end in defeat
No more faking, stop pretending
On my own I'll find my way &

Heal with a song
& start moving on
Heal with a song
& single sign on
Heal with a song
Start moving on
I'll heal with a song

You'll see I'm gonna find someone new
That doesn't hurt to love
That doesn't hurt to love
You'll see I'm gonna find someone new
That is nothing like you
That is nothing like you

Made my problems disappear
Somehow, some way you made me forget
What time was it?
What day was it?
What I'd do next
Don't give an ish

You turned my life the fun way
& showed me that you love
So I believed & fell for it
Thought you would be my shorty

We laughed, we sang, we counted numbers
I'm not like other hombres
But, who were you?
What you up to?
& would you be my lover?
Why did you say? "I got this"
Hand a bag of shame
Up in my head & I'll forget those bad dreams

You'll see I'm gonna find someone new
That doesn't hurt to love
That is nothing like you

You'll see I'm gonna find someone new
That doesn't hurt to love
That is nothing like you
That is nothing like you

In a crush, in a crush, I'm tired of being crushed
In a jam, in a jam, I'm tired of being jammed
In a crush, in a crush, I'm tired of being crushed

You'll see I'm gonna find someone new
That doesn't hurt to love
That doesn't hurt to love
You'll see I'm gonna find someone new
That is nothing like you
