

Blues Happy

Arrested Development

Hey, yes indeed, this is Speech from Arrested Development

I'm the leader, ha ha

My nose is stuffed up, though

Check it out, I'm the leader Homeboy, right over there, Headliner, is the turntable instrumentalist We got Arna 3 over there with her crazy set, over there, chillin' Razadan is chillin', he's in the house

That's the man, he designs all our logos And then we got Bubba OJ in the house

He's just, he's like the pappa, the father figure

As what, what's her name, ini? Of course, I can't forget Kwesi

Lady smiley, over here, always smilin' And, of course, Larry's on the guitar

This song is for you, brother
