2-4-6-8

The Jackson 5

2-4-6-8, who do you appreciate
Please say that boy it's me
2,4,6,8, who do you appreciate
I'm the one who wants to be your baby
2-4-6-8, who do you appreciate
Get up early to see you in the morning but you just past me
[Incomprehensible] sitting in the corner with you I share my time
I past your homeroom wishing you were my own room
Every time I looked inside
I sit at home and someday you'll notice the look here in my eyes
2-4-6-8, who do you appreciate
Please be my pride and joy
2-4-6-8, who do you appreciate
I wanna be your lover boy
I maybe a little fela but my hearts as big as Texas
I have all the love a man can give and maybe a little bit extra
Ooh be my girl
The first time [Incomprehensible] you said that's what you talked to me
I stick up for you mess you mean more than a friend to me
He wanna be your fela just tryin' to tell ya but your payin' no mind
He's no price charma still he keeps tryin' girl your so unkind
I can love you really really love you, I can tell he's just a friend
I can please you really really please you girl give me half a chance
2-4-6-8, who do you appreciate
Oh baby saves me
2-4-6-8, who do you appreciate
Don't you no I wanna be your baby yeah
Baby your baby baby baby baby
He wanna be your fela just tryin' to tell ya but your payin' no mind
He's no price charma still he keeps tryin' girl you're so unkind
