

Cherry Blossoms

Vincent Liou

Laying in your bed in that tiny apartment
Thanking my stars for my quiet soul
Thinking how I could fall asleep here whenever Wondering how we've come this farAs the cherry blossoms fall
A calm will, a calm will rush into our bonesAll I can do is live a good life and hope that
Your eyes will be my dual therapy
Wishing that I could fall asleep here forever
When we fly away our wings touch the skiesAll I can do is live a good life
All I can do is live a good lie
