Think you know the answer?
Think you got all the problems?
Well, why not try and solve them?
Instead of your sitting on themSolitaire, solitaireTaking on new projects
Steadily slipping sideways
Close your ears to reason
Your very valued opinionSolitaire, solitaireNothing is getting you nowhere
Never meaning what you're saying
Well, now I need decision
[Incomprehensible]Solitaire, solitaireThe slightest seems to explode you
Well, the whole world will implode you
Solitaire for the lonely fly
