Think you know the answer?

Think you got all the problems?

Well, why not try and solve them?

Instead of your sitting on themSolitaire, solitaireTaking on new projects

Steadily slipping sideways

Close your ears to reason

Your very valued opinionSolitaire, solitaireNothing is getting you nowhere

Never meaning what you're saying

Well, now I need decision

[Incomprehensible]Solitaire, solitaireThe slightest seems to explode you

Well, the whole world will implode you
