You Were Never Mine

Janiva Magness

I saw someone again today
Who remembered me and you
They asked all the same old questions
I gave the same excuse
They said what a shame,
what a shame
To lose a love so fine
But I never lost you,
I never really lost you
I never lost you,
you were never mine

I kept on believing
What I wanted to believe
The unspoken promises
That you could never keep
But it's a sin,
oh it's a sin
To tell yourself a lie
I never lost you,
I never lost you
I never lost you,
you were never mine

Did you give me
all you gave me
Just because I needed you
But when I needed
all your love completely
Was it more than you could do

Sometimes deep in the night
When I hold you in my dreams
I get lost in your loving touch, baby
I can't believe how real it seems
And I know, yes I know
I'll have you 'till the end of time
'Cause I never lost you,
I never lost you

I never lost you
'cause you were never mine

I never lost you,
I never really lost
you How could I lose you,
you were never mine
