While You're Young

Johnny Mathis

In my heart and my soul I can feel this is right
And I know my bones will grow old and my body get lost in the night'Cause money can't buy back the youth of your life when you're older, you're older, you're oldSo let's dance in style let's go dance for a while
While we're young, young, youngSomething in my heart tonight
Feel it in my soul
I'll let you see my wilder side
If I can see your bonesIn this moment of mine I can feel this is right
Four in the morning, just searching
Now you must know what that's like
'Cause money can't buy back the love of your life
When you're older, you're older, you're oldSo carry the weight of our biggest mistakes
On our shoulders, our shoulders, our shouldersSomething in my heart tonight
Feel it in my soul
I'll let you see my wilder side
If I can see your bonesSomething in my heart tonight
Feel it in my soul
I'll let you see my wilder side
If I can see your bonesWe're getting older
But you're still in my soul, soulWe're getting older
But you're still in my soul, soul
Something in my heart
Feel it in my, my, my soulSomething in my heart tonight
Feel it in my soul
I'll let you see my wilder side
If I can see your bonesSomething in my heart tonight
Feel it in my soul
'Cause money can't bring back the stuff in your life
When you're young, young, young
