

Oceans And Streams

The Black Keys

With guilt that no man should carry
Heavy enough for me to get buried
I see death on the road tonight

It's got me to where I wanna run and hideOh, I used to dream of oceans and streams

Flowing and growing strong

Where have all those days gone?These days I'm so slow

All those thoughts and nowhere to go

My aim it used to be so true

My world had a place in it darling just for youOh, I used to dream of oceans and streams

Flowing and growing strong

Where have all those days gone?Excuse me now I gotta go

Can't stand to be here anymore, no

I'm sick and I gotta go to bed

If I stay now I'm better off deadOh, I used to dream of oceans and streams

Flowing and growing strong

Where have all those days gone?
