

Girls

Mayday Parade

Girls please, please allow my voice
To calm you down
Boys understand
Girls will never listen or learn I was old enough to know better
Young enough to still decide
That it was worth my time
For something beautiful
I finally found my voice
And something that's worth
Writing down, with a
Picture perfect memory
Of her body, her body Girls please, please allow my voice
To calm you down
Boys understand
Girls will never listen or learn
And I'll sing so sweet
When I speak I'll bite my tongue
Cause girls never listen She was young enough to fall in love
Naive enough to think she wanted out
It wasn't worth her time
For something beautiful
You say love (She says maybe)
I say please (She says baby)
It's not you
I'm just out of my head
Her body, her body Girls please, please allow my voice
To calm you down
Boys understand
Girls will never listen or learn
And I'll sing so sweet
When I speak I'll bite my tongue
Cause girls never listen Speak low
Can you keep this a secret
Tell me your lies
And I will tell you of mine
Whispers sweetly while you
Touch me gently
I'm out of my mind (Speak low) We're not 21
It's time that we had some fun

We're not 21
(Cause girls never listen)
