

Trendkiller

Dismember

Stab it or grab it
Instant the burning
Of choices you make
Follow prophetic turnings
Stinging the eyes
Out of every option
Go with the flow
A hideous notion
Would you dare
To look hate in the eye
Kill yourself from within
While living outside
Strong will sedated
Grow weak and decapitated, self-inflicted fall
Twisting the future 'round your neck
By being a winner where losing is all
I'm the trendkiller
All out wrecking mind thriller
I'm the trendkiller
One track speeding spine chiller
Embittered follower
Drink and keep on die for others
