Miss Advenure

Bones and Jones

She climbs so high
In the nothing hours
When she pulls me i cry
And it makes me wonder

Shes the miss adventure
Shes the morning light
That i hope to fly
So far away

She puts on her amour
She knows its time to fight
Shes in the midnight hour
You can hear her blind

Shes the miss adventure
Shes the morning light
That i hope to fly
So far away
