What Am I Gonna Do

Poco

You've had me to love now
But what will you do
If I'm heartaches to you
This livin' like two?I fear it could be poison
From the taste
Seems my whole life
Should be retracedWhat am I gonna do?When I'm locked in the middle
With a key that's from you
And another one, too
But which door to undoVisions in the keyhole
Leaves me blind
Oh I should have seen
A warnin' signWhat am I gonna do?And now it's one or the other
But how can I choose
When there's a chance that
I might lose?The one that I refuse
All the love of two
Won't leave me free
And losin' you for her
Leaves less of meWhat am I gonna do?
What am I gonna do?
