Scenes from a Circus

A.A. Bondy

Your lion has left the ring now
Blood there in the dust
Every jaw hanging open
Look on if you mustHow are you dreaming?
High on your hill
Gold in the turning light
I remember it stillUp there somewhere in the ether
Summers without shoes
Now you're here with the danger
Things you cannot doHow are you dreaming?
High on your hill
Gold in the turning light
I remember it still
I remember it still
I remember it still
