

Chop Shop

DJ Dan

He's got the cops, they're knocking down his door
He left the murder weapon lying on the floor
The sister's finally gone, now he's the only son
It was a bloody day in BremertonOne stop, chop shop
 Somebody call the cops
 One stop, chop shop
Somebody call the copsIn a studio apartment, his axe wouldn't stop
 So many pieces everywhere he had to mop
 She should have paid him back last week for all the meth
That still small voice told him, "Axe her to death"One stop, chop shop
 Somebody call the cops
 One stop, chop shop
Somebody call the copsI hope they put this guy away until the end of time
 He must be messed up in the head to have committed this sick crime
 His confession to the police it painted such a gruesome scene
The apartment was more red than they have ever seenIt's so sad to see that chalky outline
 B town murders happen all the timeOne stop, chop shop
 Somebody call the cops
 One stop, chop shop
 Somebody call the cops
