Gateways

Amy Duncan

The core principle of freedom
Is the only notion to obey
The formula of evolution and sin
Leading the wayThe rebirth is near completion
As we slowly awaken from slumber
As we slowly awaken from slumberThe malpractice of the spirit ends
Gateways
When the gift is once again attained
GatewaysNo rules or restraints are longer valid
Gateways
When the ancient future is reclaimed
GatewaysNo rules ore restraints are longer valid
Gateways
When the ancient future is reclaimed
GatewaysIt's all there for the eyes that can see
The blind ones will always suffer in secrecy
For it is the omen of what lies submerged, breeding
Untouched within us, bleedingThe core principle of freedom
Is the only notion to obey
The formula of evolution and sin
Leading the wayThe rebirth is near completion
As we slowly awaken from slumber
To receive the light that shines in darkness
The light that shines forevermore
Forevermore!Be the broken or the breaker
Be the giver or the undertaker
Unlock and open the door
Be the healer or the fakerThe keys are in your hands
Realize you are your own sole creator
Of your own master planBe the broken or the breaker
Be the giver or the undertaker
Unlock and open the door
Be the healer or the fakerThe keys are in your hands
Realize you are your own sole creator
Of your own master plan
