Easy to Persuade

Sondre Lerche

Is it hot in here or have I lost myself again?
Is it hot in here or is it only me?
If I leave the room maybe things will settle down
If I get back let's pretend we never met'Cause I know I'm so easy to persuade
Why do I cling to the little that remains?
But in the end there's something you can't erase
Oh, but you know I'm so easy to persuadeIs it hot in here 'cause my pulse is running scared?
From a beating heart with something to defend
How hard can it be to tell the truth from what you're told?
Get out now while there's still some air left in the tank'Cause I know I'm so easy to persuade
Why do I cling to the little that remains?
But in the end there's something you can't erase
Oh, you would know I'm so easy to persuadeIs it hot in here? I don't know that you would know
Oh, whatever, don't know why I even ask'Cause you know I'm so easy to persuade
How did you know I would shoulder all the blame?
But in the end I guess some things you can't erase
Oh, but you know I'm so easy to persuade
I'm so easy to persuade, I'm so easy to persuade
