Wanderer

Seemless

The shadow that's lost
Carries a burden
Cursed to roam
There's a whispering in my mind
This road will lead you down

Into your heart
Into your soul
Your broken wings will lead you down

The shadow that is found
Can see the light within their soul
But there's a whispering in my mind
Sayin' this road will lead you down

Follow the light
To lead you out
Before you fall into the shadows

I am my worst enemy
Fell into the life of the wanderer
Searching for a way to drag you
Down
