The Swarm

Sierra Sam

And I stand
On shaken ground
The earth moves beneath my feet
And I shout "forgive me"
But there's no God listening
And these walls surround us
Always black and grays I see
And we found this time
On our weakness it will feedIs this the end of the world
I cannot bare to watch it burn
But we're crawling in the dirt
Is this the end of it all
Well we used to stand so tall
I barely recognize us anymoreI don't believe
In the things I cannot see
But this night is dead
They're all coming for me
I shout "forgive me"
But this proves I'm now too weak
And I try to speak
But hope has been taken from meIs this the end of the world
I cannot bare to watch it burn
But we're crawling in the dirt
Is this the end of it all
Well we used to stand so tall
I barely recognize us anymoreIs this the end of the world
I cannot bare to watch it burn
But we're crawling in the dirt
Is this the end of it all
Well we used to stand so tall
I barely recognize us anymoreIs this the end of the world
Is this the end of the world
Is this the end of the world
Is this the end
Is this the end of the world
