A Place Where You Belong

Bullet for My Valentine

You're gone, you're goneYour body's cold, hope is lost, I can't let go

Can I die with you so we can never grow old?

Cut the ties, cut the ties with this note you left behind

As I read the words I hear you telling me whyToo late, too late, I never said goodbye

Too late, too late, can't even ask you why

And now I'm wasting away in my own misery

I hope you're finally gone to a place where you belongMy sadness shows as your name is carved in stone

Can't erase the words so the reality grows

I wish I'd died on that night right by your side

So just kill me now and let the good times rollToo late, too late, I never said goodbye

Too late, too late, can't even ask you why

And now I'm wasting away in my own misery

I hope you're finally gone to a place where you belong Will you wait for me? Will you wait for me?

Will I see you on the other side?

You don't have to wait too long, yeah, yeah

Will you come to me? Will you come to me?

Will you take me to the other side

'Cause here I don't belongToo late, too late, I never said goodbye

Too late, too late, can't even ask you why

And now I'm wasting away in my own misery

I hope you're finally gone to a place where you belong I never said goodbye, oh, can't even ask you why

I'm wasting away in my own misery

I hope you're finally gone to a place where you belong
