

Fuchsia

Sorority Noise

Flower girl
I am not what I seem
I'm the reason your leaves are withering
My sun has set and I will never keep you warm again
How I long to be in bloom for you
How I long to be in bloom with you
Fallen eyes
I fear that I'm falling asleep
Winter is calling me far sooner than it ought to be
How I long to be the soil to keep you safe
Will I ever be more than my mistake
