Crystal Ball

Utopia

Well, I've heard it
I've heard it all
I've heard it all beforeI don't need no gypsy
I don't need no crystal ball
Since you started messin' round on me darlin'
Now the phone's ringing off the wallAnd everybody says it's so
I got a broken heart comin'
And they want me to knowAnd I've heard it all
I don't need a crystal ballI got a lady across the hallway
I got another one, way across town
All the people at your birthday party
You should hear the way they're puttin' me down?It seems the whole world's out to spy
It's like the CIA meets the FBIAnd I've heard it all
I don't need a crystal ball
Well, I've heard it all
I don't need a crystal ballWell I've heard it all
It ain't no surprise to meI don't watch no television
I don't read the daily news
I'm afraid if I listen to the radio
I'll hear about the latest things you doI don't want no explanation
Nothin' you could say
Could be a revelationAnd I've heard it all
I don't need a crystal ball
Well, I've heard it all
I don't need a crystal ballWell I've heard it all
It ain't no surprise to meI don't watch no television
I don't read the daily news
I'm afraid if I listen to the radio
I'll hear about the latest things you doI don't want no explanation
Nothin' you could say
Could be a revelationAnd I've heard it all
I don't need a crystal ball
Well, I've heard it
I've heard it all
I've heard it all before
