

Solid Water

Slowtide

You slide across the solid water and it's crackin you up to see her shine
you slide across the solid water
but she still feels perfectly fine
And when the lights are out, can you see her, can you see her?
and when the door is closed, can you hear her, hear her voice?
you should've known her better,
I thought you knew her well well, she has pushed you over, grew stronger as you fell
You slide across the solid water
you slide across the solid water
but she still feels perfectly fine
And when you touch yourself, can you feel her, can you feel her?
and when you're missing out, can you feel her? no you can't...
you should've known her better,
well, she has pushed you over,
