No Religion

Van Morrison

We didnt know no better
And they said it could be worse
Some people thought it was a blessing
Other people think that its a curseIts a choice between fact and fiction
And the whole world has gone astray
Thats why theres no religion
No religion, no religion here todayAnd theres no straight answers
Of what this thing called love is all about
Some say its unconditional
Other people just remain in doubtWell, I cleaned up my diction
I had nothing left to say
Except theres no religion
No religion, no religion here todayAnd they ask what hate is
Its just the other side of love
Some people want to give their enemies
Everything they think that they deserveSome say, why dont you love your neighbors
Go ahead, turn the other cheek
But theres nobody on this planet
That can ever be so meekAnd I cant bleed for you
You have to do it your own way
And theres no religion
No religion, no religion here todayAnd they ask what hate is
Its the other side of love
Some people want to give their enemies
Everything they think that they deserveOthers say, why dont you love your neighbors
Go ahead and turn the other cheek
But have you ever met anybody
Whos ever been that meek?And its so cruel to expect
The savior to save the day
And theres no religion
No religion, no religion here todayAnd theres no mystery
And theres nothing hidden
And theres no religion here todayAnd theres no mystery
And theres nothing hidden
And theres no religion here today
And theres no religion
No religion, no religion here today
