This heart's been dragged around
My trust was cheated
I almost gave my soul away
Friends turned to demons
Girlfriends talked of suicide
Who do I believe in?Wide awake, still dreaming
Reality's deceiving me
To break these chains that hold me here
I must rise and face my fearsLight a fire so I can see
This inner silence won't bury me
It's cold in this heart 'cause it's so real
There's a cold device that pumps this bloodVoices in my head are screaming
Set yourself free
From the enemy and these hollow souls
That are surrounding me
Trapped in a corner
Back up against the wall
I gotta rise before I fall
Passions race through these veins
As cold tear drops fallLight a fire so I can see
This inner silence won't bury me
It's cold in this heart 'cause it's so real
There's a cold device that pumps this bloodThis heart's been dragged around
My trust was cheated
I almost gave my soul away
Friends turned to demons
Girlfriends talked of suicide
Who do I believe in?Light a fire so I can see
This inner silence won't bury me
It's cold in this heart 'cause it's so real
There's a cold device that pumps this bloodIt's cold in this dying soul
