

You Still Belong to Me

DJ Kane

Your tears say all I need to know
I'm here, trying to keep away the loneliness
You were in love with me
I'm the one who gave you everything
I gave you it all You can run away
But you still belong to me
All your love will stay
No matter if I set you free
And we can say goodbye a thousand times
But I will know, that you still belong to me
Ooh, you still belong to me
Ooh, you still belong to me You say your feelings for me change just
When we're like a fire in the rain
I know its all a lie
Our love will never fade into a memory
No it wont disappear You can run away
But you still belong to me
All your love will stay
No matter if I set you free
And we can say goodbye a thousand times
But I will know, that you still belong to me
Ooh, you still belong to me
Ooh, you still belong to me When you come back to me
When you realize that I'm the one
The only one you need
You'll find my arms are open wide
You can run away all your love will stay
'Cause you still belong to me You can run away
But you still belong to me
All your love will stay
No matter if I set you free
And we can say goodbye a thousand times
But I will know, that you still belong to me
Ooh, you still belong to me
Ooh, you still belong to me You can run away
But you still belong to me
All your love will stay
No matter if I set you free
And we can say goodbye a thousand times

But I will know, that you still belong to me
Ooh, you still belong to me
Ooh, you still belong to meOoh, you still belong to me
Ooh, your heart wont set you free
Ooh, soon you're gonna see
Ooh, baby my love will never leave
