

You Need To Cut Your Hair

Ed Sheeran

Well, I walked from my house to yours
In a warm, cold April rain
We barely went outdoors
And your family took the blame
Take time to be with you
She can only glare
I'm a bad influence
That'll do 'cause I need to cut my hair
Wash my mouth
Change my clothes
"Just don't talk those friends of yours
Tell them not to come here anymore"
"Time to go, don't be slow"
"This'll only take a mo'"
"Take yourself right off my door"
It's just that they don't care
Dad said "Beware, watch your back
And just don't reply to the woman there"
"Even if she makes a fuss, just ignore that trust"
And "Don't give into lust"
And "Leave that one alone, the girl's a trouble"
Time spent in burnt-down shed
Add up near two days
Fall down and cut my head
Take time to misbehave
Spend time and be with you
She can only glare 'cause
"You're a bad influence
That'll do boy, you need to cut your hair"
Wash my mouth
Change my clothes
"Just don't talk those friends of yours
Tell them not to come here anymore"
"Time to go, don't be slow"
"This'll only take a mo'"
"Take yourself right off my door"
It's just that they don't care
Dad said "Beware, watch your back
And just don't reply to the woman there"
"Even if she makes a fuss, just ignore that trust"
And "Don't give into lust"
And "Leave that one alone, the girl's a trouble"
This is the dancing song
Close your eyes
Hypnotise to the beat
And the movement of the week
Do that shuffle of your feet
And pound out the fever

Either dance 'cause you're a true believer
Cleaner lives are what you don't see
 Feel the weight
 Gravitate
 Feel the pace of me
 This world is 2D
 The only thing that's free in life is love
And that don't come cheap
 It's just that they don't care
 Dad said "Beware, watch your back
 And just don't reply to the woman there"
 "Even if she makes a fuss, just ignore that trust"
 And "Don't give into lust"
 And "Leave that one alone, the girl's a trouble"
