Light in Mine

Life In Your Way

You have lit up the world all around me
You're a light in mine, so bright
Heart-filled motivation is letting love grow
Your heart-filled motivation is letting love grow
An example worth looking up to
How many can give when it means giving everything?
How many can give when it means giving their all?
If the troubles of this world hold no weight
Then the freedom of today will bring a brighter tomorrow
The kind of man I want to look up to
The kind of man I want looking out for me
When I find myself in need And the only way out is to rely on someone else
I hope you'd be there
You leave me speechless
