Billy Bibbit

San Fermin

Give in to love
B-b-Billy Bibbit give in to love
Give in to love
Then do whatever a grown up man does
It's not your fault
You know this is what your mother would want
Give in to love
And get what you wantGive it up
Even though you're shaking, Billy
You don't have it in you, to [??]
You've got your father's eyes and your mother's always watching, Billy
You've already gone [??]
When your mother goes, your father will be with her, Billy
So take a breath and close your little eyes
It's a blind[?] and lonely building where you're hiding, Billy
Can't you even try?Billy, we're all gonna die
So I wouldn't try to force it
You're living in your mind
You have to get out of your mind
Oh, by little[?] we will die
Billy, this is your moment
You're living in your mind
You have to get our of your mindBilly, we're all gonna die
We're all gonna die
