

The Oldest of Sisters

Balthazar

I'm not sure is it how you would say yes
Your room's still open but I didn't miss the steps
Cause when I went nearby to see what I've missed
There was your doorman challenging me to confess
Friend of mine
My o-old friend, refine
My o-old friend, well tide
My o-old friend of mine
But I get someone behind, oh
Oh, you gave me shelter, saying: "Fool, you must not learn"
What you've kept close will be left here to burn
The oldest of sisters, she was the greatest one to earn
So, I wrote her this letter in advance of my return
Friend of mine
My o-old friend, refine
My o-old friend, well tide
My o-old friend of mine
Well, I get someone behind, oh
As I get someone behind
