

Die to the Dream

Emily Clibourn

Still chasing a dream now
25 and I've got no clout
I'll never be your Katy Perry
In my blue jeans, in my blue jeans, in my blue jeans

When I was young I wanted to be
Your baby girl, your prom queen
I didnt know then that wasn't me
In my blue jeans, in my blue jeans, in my blue jeans

A chorus sings

I'll never be free if I dont die to the dream
I'll never be free if I dont die to the dream
The rich and the famous on my TV
They're shining like diamonds
I'll never be free if I dont die to the dream

Janis & Jimmy, the BIG

In my blue jeans, in my blue jeans, in my blue jeans

A chorus sings

I'll never be free if I dont die to the dream
I'll never be free if I dont die to the dream
The rich and the famous on my TV
They're shining like diamonds
I'll never be free if I dont die

I'm a child of the night
I was born for the end of times
Yeah I aint afraid to die
In my blue jeans, in my blue jeans, in my blue jeans

Weâ€™re the silence in the shadows
Youth knows the truth but we got no proof
They want us to be all like TMZ
In our blue jeans, in our blue jeans, in our blue jeans

A chorus sings

I'll never be free if I dont die to the dream
I'll never be free if I dont die to the dream
The rich and the famous on my TV
They're shining like diamonds
I'll never be free if I dont die to the dream

Janis & Jimmy, the BIG

A chorus sings

I'm all alone at midnight
My battle lies up in the skies
The bells they ring
Im all alone in my blue jeans
Indigo child in indigo jeans
The bells they ring

In my blue jeans, in my blue jeans, in my blue jeans
In my blue jeans, in my blue jeans, in my blue jeans

Janis & Jimmy, the BIG

I'll never be free if I dont die in a dream
