

The Mountain

Joshua Hyslop

It's funny now you've gone
All the words have come
But if I reach the end before I'm done
May I be the only one
To watch it in the wind
What may be and what has been
If all the rain will fall down upon us all
Oh the sun will come again

From the mountain top
Where my sun'll always stop
I will see you there
The echo of your kiss
Carried off in the raindrops
