

Under the Spell

Springtime Carnivore

All the black roses that grow in your heart
I keep them like a calling card
Unexpected the way that it starts
Just one, two, three I see your face in the mirror
It's the one behind my own
I see your face in the mirror
Even when I'm all alone I just keep falling Under your spell
Even though I know it well
I just keep falling Under your spell
Even though I know it so well Under your spell
Under your spell
Under your spell
Once I felt the lightning
Under my skin
We were fire back then
Now I'm searching for the feeling again
Just one, two, three I see your face in the mirror
You're always right behind
I see your face in the mirror
I try to run but always find I just keep falling Under your spell
Even though I know it well
I just keep falling Under your spell
Even though I know it so well Under your spell
Under your spell
Under your spell
I just keep falling Under your spell
Even though I know it well
I just keep falling Under your spell
Even though I know it so well Under your spell
I'm under your spell
Under your spell
