

Wake Up!

Oomph!

Got no time for waiting
Got no time to waste
Everywhere machines here
Set a deadly paceGot no time for questions
You've got work to do
Got no time to stop now
If you stop, you loseJust breathe in
Then breathe outWake up, now you're stuck in this game
And even if you run the score is the same
Wake up, now you're stuck in this game
You're just stuck in this gameGot no time for dreaming
Follow your commands
Got no time for chances
Or to understandGot no time for lovers
(Got no time)
We all fight alone
(Got no time)
No one sees you bleeding
(Got no time)
No one hears your moansJust breathe in
Then breathe outWake up, now you're stuck in this game
And even if you run the score is the same
Wake up, now you're stuck in this game
You're just stuck in this gameWake up, now you're stuck in this game
And even if you run the score is the same
Wake up, now you're stuck in this game
You're just stuck in this gameYour life is seeping through your fingers like sand
And time it flies like the wind
You run in circles and you're losing your mind
But all you want is to winJust breathe in
Then breathe outWake up, now you're stuck in this game
And even if you run the score is the same
Wake up now you're stuck in this game
You're just stuck in this gameWake up, now you're stuck in this game
And even if you run the score is the same
Wake up, now you're stuck in this game
You're just stuck in this gameWake up
Wake up
Wake up
