

Mr.Beautiful

Cheyenne Kimball

I Look at all the pictures, and I have to wonder why
You were always laughing, and I'm about to cry
It's hard to see the mirror, when you're blinded by the sun
And I can't say I'm sorry, I thought you were the oneI gotta keep leaving, if I'm going to get over you
I gotta keep moving, I've had all that I can do
I gotta believe it, we both know the truth
Good-bye Mr. Beautiful, you're someone I never knewI think of all the moments, when I was so alone
And you were there right next to me, but nobody was home
And I was like a prisoner, inside your selfish world
There wasn't enough room for me, and all your other girls[Chorus]Don't tell me you love me, you don't know what love is anyway
I'm saying its over and I wanna do what I say
And I gave you a million chances to make it right, make it right, make it right
Your never gonna get it right, so[Chorus x2]
