

Happy Meal

The Cardigans

Arrange the books
Clean up the small table by the sofa
Arrange my clothes
Shape up the place

Eager for the meeting
The dinner we'll be eating,
Wine that we'll be drinking
And kinky thoughts I'm thinking,
All because of you

And now I've found a partner,
No one can be, happier than I am
And now I've found a new friend,
No one can be, happier than me

Prepare a meal I can make
Sing funny songs while it's in the oven
Then take a bath with bubbles
Shape up my face

Just before our meeting
The dinner we'll be eating,
Wine that we'll be drinking
And kinky thoughts I'm thinking,
All because of you
